

First Aid Assistant

Reports to: Head Medical Personnel

General Description:

The First Aid Assistant is responsible for providing immediate and effective first aid to individuals who require medical assistance within the First Aid Station. This position involves assessing injuries or illnesses, administering basic medical care, and ensuring a safe and secure environment for all participants.

Specific Responsibilities:

- Respond promptly to medical emergencies, accidents, or injuries within the First Aid Station
- Assess and administer appropriate first aid treatment
- Gather relevant information from the affected individual for necessary report
- Administer basic first aid treatments such as wound care, bandaging, or other necessary interventions.
- Provide comfort and reassurance to individuals in distress
- Change bedding between patients
- Help keep the First Aid station clean and sanitized
- Ensure first aid supplies and equipment are properly stocked, organized, and ready for use.

Qualifications:

- Strong communication skills
- Ability to remain calm and focused in high-pressure situations
- Compassion and empathy for individuals in distress

Disclaimer

The above statements are intended to describe the general nature and level of work being performed by people assigned to this classification. They are not to be construed as an exhaustive list of all responsibilities, duties, and skills required of personnel so classified. All personnel may be required to perform duties outside of their normal responsibilities from time to time, as needed.