

SOUTHERN MISSOURI MINISTRY NETWORK

MESSANGER

SUMMER 2022

ACCELERATE

Accelerate

What an amazing time we experienced in District Council 2022 (now known as Network Conference)! God met with us in each service challenging and encouraging us.

The theme for this month's Messenger is Accelerate. Yes, that was the theme for District Council. Yet, it is a word that God has given us for this season. In this article, we will review some things which have already been said regarding this topic. This is not designed to be repetitious but to keep these thoughts before us.

The word accelerate could easily refer to the rapid rate of change of our culture and our world. These last two years have brought unbelievable changes and challenges. Yet, I believe there is spiritual significance to this word. Amos speaks of this concept:

"Behold, the days are coming," declares the Lord, "when the plowman shall overtake the reaper and the treader of grapes him who sows the seed;" (Amos 9:13, ESV).

In this passage, Amos speaks of restoration for the Israelites. He shares of a day that God will literally accelerate the harvest in the land; a day when the one who is reaping comes right behind the one who is sowing. It would be a time of blessing and bountiful harvest. Yes, Amos is speaking of an actual physical harvest. Yet, often in his Word God uses what is happening in the physical to illustrate what he plans to do in the spiritual realm.

I believe we are moving into the greatest season of spiritual harvest this world has ever known. Jesus is coming soon. And right before he comes, God is going to do all that he can to bring as many as possible to him. We get to be part of that amazing season.

Why is it important for us to realize that God is going to accelerate the harvest? First, as we catch hold of this reality, we are encouraged to pray fervently, to intercede, that God will bring an awakening to Southern Missouri, to our nation, and to our world. Yes, may he use all believers. But God please give the Southern Missouri Ministry Network part of the harvest. Reinhard Bonnke stated, "Miracles are the dinner bell to the gospel." So, like the apostles, we pray for God to move in signs and wonders to demonstrate his power and to draw unbelievers to salvation.

Anticipating this new season motivates us to prepare for the harvest. We must be ready to receive and to disciple those who are brought to salvation so the harvest will be retained. As leaders, we must be ready to steward the move of God to avoid abuses and excesses which could cause distraction and confusion and hinder the work of his Spirit.

We are already seeing signs of this move in pockets across Southern Missouri. It reminds me of the old hymn, Showers of Blessings. The chorus declares, "Mercy drops round us are falling; but for the showers we plead!" Please pray with us that God will truly accelerate the harvest.

MISSIONS RALLY

DISTRICT COUNCIL 2022

ACCELERATE THE HARVEST

District Council's Missions Rally service opened with over 130 SOMO Missionaries singing "Send the Light" and closed with a stirring song of "Lord of the Harvest" reminding us the harvest is plentiful and the laborers are few.

Rev. Stan Welch delivered a challenging message to Accelerate the Harvest. A few message points:

- To Accelerate the Harvest we must
1. Refocus our view of the harvest
 - a. Timing of the harvest
 - b. Condition of the harvest
 - c. Scope of the harvest
 2. Receive Power to bring in the harvest
 3. Give, pray, go

WHAT ABOUT THE MK?

New Ministry Focus to Missionary Kids

Southern Missouri has faithfully, and consistently, sent and supported hundreds of missionaries over the years.

While we are proud of this achievement and continue to celebrate this endeavor, there is a question we would like to ask: how many of those missionaries' kids do you know?

This seems like a simple question; however, it is more complex than most people realize. Often when emphasizing missions, we focus on the couple instead of the family. The truth is, God has anointed and called the entire family into the missions effort, which means missionary kids need our prayer and support as well. They are just as vital to the mission, but often don't receive recognition for their part.

As a result of this, many missionary kids struggle in the areas of identity, belonging and purpose. These struggles only intensify as they try to balance every day life along with the work their family has been called to. While these challenges will vary case by case, the root of the struggle remains the same.

This creates an opportunity for us, to come alongside our missionary kids and minister to their needs. We believe we can make a difference in their lives by providing hospitality, increasing our understanding of their experiences, and establishing stronger connections with them. Some simple methods could include providing a small gift, taking the time to hear and share their stories, and learning about their favorite things. By recognizing, celebrating and encouraging our missionary kids, we not only meet their needs, we also build up the entire family.

We know that prayer makes the biggest difference, so we ask that you join with us in praying for our missionary kids. Pray that God would protect, encourage, and bless them. Pray for the Holy Spirit's presence and peace in their lives. Pray for the love of Christ to shine through them as they make a difference around the world.

Finally, we ask that you prayerfully consider how you and your church could join us in ministering to our missionary kids. Thank you for your continued support to missions and the work of the Kingdom.

Sincerely,
John Michael and Nicole Caldwell

ACCELERATE YOUR LEADERSHIP!

Considered by many to be the foremost authority on leadership, John Maxwell has famously said that “Everything rises and falls on leadership.” The truth of that statement can be seen in organizations of any type or size. Leaders who are not consistently striving to grow in their spiritual walk and in their skills as a leader will ultimately hinder the forward progress of the church or ministry they lead. There is an abundance of resources that focus on ways to grow your skills in leadership, and we will look at some of those in a future Messenger article. In this article we will focus on the importance of growth in our spiritual walk upon our church or ministry as well as those we lead.

Growth in Our Spiritual Walk is CRITICAL!

The daily activities of church ministry do not automatically result in one growing more spiritually mature or being closer to God. Often, the busyness of ministry leads to the opposite result.

Several years ago, I was asked to assist a church in defining what it meant to be a fully devoted follower of Christ. That process required so much more soul-searching than we anticipated when we started. After three years of personal and collective study and research, our team compiled a list of seven characteristics that we felt best described what a fully devoted follower of Christ looked like. REACH, CONNECT, GROW, SERVE, WORSHIP, GIVING, and YIELDING to the Holy Spirit were the best expressions of being a follower of Jesus. We also concluded that each of the seven characteristics were also spiritual disciplines (or activities) that must be a regular part of a Christ-follower’s life.

This discovery reminded me of the importance of these activities in my life as a Christ-follower and a leader. I must guard against these activities becoming exercises in busyness as well. If I can maintain each activity as a dynamic spiritual rhythm in my life, I can address my personal limitations and remain on track.

Continued Spiritual Transformation Benefits Those We Lead!

In her book Strengthening the Soul of Your Leadership, Ruth Haley Barton said, “Our transformation is never for ourselves alone. It is always for the sake of others” (p. 74). While it is important to develop for our own sake, it is even more significant for those we lead. As servant leaders, we need to keep in mind that we’re never leading for our own benefit but serving the Lord. Therefore, we must allow him to perform His work in us for the sake of our organization, AND for those who serve Him there with us.

Leadership growth—specifically your leadership growth—may not be the only factor in the growth or decline of your church, but it is one of the most significant ones. Your willingness or unwillingness to grow spiritually will have a significant impact on the people we lead. If we grow as a leader, our people will grow, and our church will grow as a result.

Blessings!

Greg Perkins

CHURCH PLANTING

Jerry Harris

BY JERRY HARRIS, REACH MISSOURI NETWORK

Summer 2022

NEW CHURCH PLANTING DIRECTOR

Congratulations to RMN's Director of Operations, Chris Wiggs, for being appointed the new Church Planting Director of the Southern Missouri Ministry Network! This appointment means a continued strong partnership and collaboration between the SMMN and RMN to plant churches in the state of Missouri.

Chris has been RMN's Director of Operations for the last two years. He and Laura planted Reach Church STL three years ago, a healthy and growing church reaching the St. Ann, MO neighborhood.

Reach Missouri Network is a U.S. Missions Project, founded by Jerry Harris five years ago to plant churches in Missouri. The Network is funded by churches, organizations and individuals who believe in our mission to have impactful and influential churches in every community. As Director of Operations for RMN, and now the new Church Planting Director of SMMN, Chris will be contacting you and asking you to partner with us in prayer and with financial support to plant 60 new churches across Missouri. A huge "Thank You" to all of you who are currently supporting Reach Missouri Network and our planters. With your support, we will continue to reach the one far from God by starting new churches.

Our new church plants have an 88% success rate.
Our new churches are not just surviving, they are thriving!

Accelerate

Cross Pointe Camp has been used by God to impact the lives of thousands and thousands of people in our Network since 1942. There is an outpouring of the Holy Spirit every year in our camps and retreats. As we see the signs of the coming of the Lord, let us believe for the empowerment to accelerate the harvest. Continue to pray for the camps that are taking place, and our men's and women's events at camp. Pray that the spiritual fire from camp will be taken back to churches impacting them in a miraculous way. If you would like to receive a monthly prayer email, go to SOMOprayer.com to sign up.

We are so thankful for the crew that came to camp on April 6th, to unload the new chairs for the Tabernacle. We are excited about the transformation that these chairs are making in the services at camp.

Accelerate Impact

The Summer months are often very busy with camps, vacations and activities while schools are out of session. However, there may be more opportunities for intentional investment in the lives of the students in your ministry in a small group setting. It may be a different format to an already scheduled service or a more impromptu trip to a park, restaurant or local sporting event. When looking to create impact it makes sense that more likeminded laborers will make the desired result much easier. Therefore, if we want to accelerate impact we must increase our investment in the next generation. Be willing to live life with your students this Summer! Some students are getting ready to start their relationship with Jesus, others may be looking to take the next step in growing in God, while others may be looking for ways to serve in the church.

In March, the Go Bold Girl Conference took place in Camden-ton, Missouri for girls ages 5-18. Many students and leaders committed to taking the good news of Jesus to the next level in their life and sharing Jesus with their friends! The conference centered around the empowerment of the Holy Spirit and how God can increase impact when we are on His mission. Southern Missouri Girls continue to see the mission of taking the good news of Jesus to the nations raising more than $5,000 during the conference for missions. The future of the next generation is bright, but as leaders we must see the impact can be accelerated if we are willing to invest more time, truth and trust into the character of our students.

Practical Ways To Invest in the Next Generation:

- be consistent
- be genuine
- be willing to listen
- greet them personally
- celebrate all their wins big or small
- provide opportunities for them to lead
- Pray a blessing over them before they leave

NEW GUY IN TOWN!

Here it is, my very first Messenger article... come on Chip, don't screw it up!

Maybe we should just begin with introductions. My name is Chip Dudden and I'm the new guy! Not new to ministry, or to the Dist... errrr... Network, but I definitely still wake up with that "New Guy" feeling. You know the one. It's that unsure "is this really happening, what have I gotten myself into?" sort of feeling. That feeling where every new relationship, agenda, event and interaction has that mildly awkward tang. It's almost as awkward as having to use your phone's "talk to text" to remember how to spell awkward (no "q", who knew!?)... but I digress.

As I try to figure out this new role and it tries to figure out me, the temptation is to look around, see the excellence around me and try and be just like that. And that's a pretty high bar! I mean, I'm across the hall from "THE" Austin Westlake. Have you seen that guy!?... I bet he knows how to spell awkward.

Spelling prowess aside, there are some serious shoes to fill here. Jim Calvin served in this role for 11 years! A large chunk of my ministry here in SOMO was served with Jim in the background cheering me on. Now I'm supposed to be Jim?!

Wellllllll... no... I'm not.

I'm not supposed to be Austin and I'm not supposed to be Jim.

Right now, in this moment, the best I can do to serve this role is to be ME! Just an ordinary guy, whose personality profile features at least 4 of the 7 dwarfs (Hint: Doc doesn't make the list). So why me? Why now? What is it about this moment that requires a "Me"?

The truth is, I'm not sure I have it all figured out, and maybe you don't either. And you know what? That's ok. After all, when Esther entered the palace, she had no idea there would be a moment where she would be called on to save her people. But there she was, saying "Yes" and changing history. Her Uncle Mordecai nailed it when he said "Who knows? Maybe you were made queen for just such a time as this." And maybe... just maybe, so were you and I.

So what does that mean? It means I'm going to trust that God knew what He was doing when He made me, when He called me and when He placed me. Sure, I'm awkward, I'm uncomfortable and insecure. I could list 100 reasons why I'm not the right guy for this job, but I really only need 1 reason to accelerate ahead. I trust the Lord.

So for me, Proverbs 3:5-6 is the vehicle I'm driving. I'm going to trust in the Lord with all my heart. I'm going to lean on Him because I don't see the whole picture. I'm going to submit and say yes when He puts opportunities in front of me and I'm gonna hit the gas because He's made the path ahead straight.

MOVE IT!

Two school girls were taking a shortcut across a neighbor's field. They had been warned to stay out of the field and to stay away from Old Henry the neighbor's bull who roamed the field. Not seeing Henry the girl's thought it would be safe to take the shortcut. About halfway across the field they felt the ground shaking and Old Henry appeared full steam ahead running toward the girls. Frozen with fear one girl cried, "we're going to die." A few seconds later the other girl regaining her composure shouted "MOVE IT" and they both took off running just making it to the fence and safety as Old Henry got there.

In these last days those of us 50 Plus cannot afford to become distracted, depressed or discouraged by world events unfolding before us. The signs of Christ's return are everywhere and we must accelerate our vigilance in keeping one eye on the heavens for Christ and one eye on those who we can point toward Jesus. Paul would say keep "pressing toward the mark of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

There is no need to panic or become fearful in endtime conditions.

If we listen carefully perhaps we will hear Jesus say to us; "MOVE IT," just in the nick of time. Stay Rapture ready!
